CATCH SOME WAVES

EXPERIENCE SPITI

The Only adrenaline thumping backpacking trip

Ladakh's lesser-known neighbour, the cold mountain desert of Spiti, is for travellers who dare to drift from the tourist trails. Spiti's postcard villages remain remotely tucked away in the lap of the mighty, barren Himalayas of Himachal Pradesh, and it is here that you can hike along Snow Leopard and Himalayan Wolf habitats, visit monasteries dating back over a 1000 years, sample a fascinating culture and cuisine different from the rest of India, and meet the kindest of people who live the harshest of lives. This is a world within a world, as Rudyard Kipling once described it.

Langza & Pin Valley.
Overnight stay at Kaza.

DAY 5

Leave early morning from Chandrataal to Manali.
Evening Volvo from Manali to Delhi

Day 1

DELHI - MANALI

We have hit Manali in the morning. Grab a good and filling breakfast amidst the crawling clouds and explore the local edges of 'Valley of the Gods'. Visit the Mall Road, Hidimba Temple, some old and classic cafes to chill. Don't forget to visit the Vashisht Temple for the hot water spring.

We shall return to the hotel by evening to dine in while getting briefed for the next day's sightseeing

Day 2

MANALI - ROHTANG PASS
- KUNZUM LA - KAZA

After the breakfast, we leave for Spiti and Lahaul via the Rohtang Pass. The scene is worth enjoying as the terrain change from lush green valleys to patches of snow blankets and some brown arid desert.

Here we are! At the gateway to the Spiti Valley - Kunzum La. The drive continues till we reach a dramatic landscape of magnificent mountains, Kaza. It's evening already, and we are ready to dine in together.

Day 3

KAZA - HIKKIM -
KOMIC - LANGZA
PIN VALLEY - KAZA

You will start your day with a drive to Hikkim and send a postcard to our loved ones from the world's highest Post Office. Now, it's time for Komic! Komic is the highest village in Asia connected by a motorable road, situated at a height of 4513 m and has a population of 83 people which is cut off from the rest of the world most part of the year.

After exploring the wildlife of Pin Valley and prehistoric parts of Spiti (millions of years ago) in Langza, we're ready to head back to KAZA.

“ Kaza is known for its colourful festivals & the ancient Sakya Tangyud Monastery in a side valley ”

Day 4

KAZA - KEY MONASTERY
- KIBBER - CHICHAM - CHANDRA TAAL

Key Monastery, remotely located on a hilltop is a world-famous centre of learning and is a choice of those seeking divine peace.

Next in queue is Kibber Wildlife Sanctuary which spans over an area of 2,220.12 km² of land. Following this, it's time to cross the highest bridge of Asia, Chicham Bridge. The fun doesn't end here. We will now take you to the mesmerising Chandra Taal Lake.

Later, check into the campsite near Chandra Taal Lake under the clear sky with twinkling stars

Day 5

CHANDRA TAAL - MANALI

Time to head back home! But, first to Manali.

While most of you will be drained out and wide asleep, we'll wake you up time and again to favour the stunning landscapes.

It's evening, time for a nice coffee at the cafe in Manali before we board the Volvo to Delhi only to reach home the next morning :)
